He didn't care for the sketches.

I asked if there was anything he did like.

The animal itself isn't too bad. He wants something that will be able to wrap around a tee shirt or hat side. He cannot see how this design would do that. Also, not crazy about the color. He is thinking 'deep dark'.

Maybe if the animal was coming around from the back over the side. And the lettering was on the front

He is looking for something that will be universal throughout his clothing line, S.W.A.G.

Hi Shelly

I am checking up on this to see if your customer needs any changes as I will have a long illustration job coming through this Thursday that will last throughout the weekend. Thank you.

Hi Shelly

Here is the locked artwork. Let me know what you think of the logo? The initial cost is $39.50. Thank you.

Hello Shelly

For this logo I would start at $39.50 (1 1/2 hours of time) for the first renditions since this needs to be a custom design. If they need revisions then I would charge an hourly rate of $25. My guess is this would not go over $64.50. Just let me know if your customer is ok with that. And thank you.

Craig
